Please be aware that the property located at _____ has suffered severe fire and water damage to the property. Any person(s) who is to enter the property is acknowledging that they are solely entering the property at their own risk. The person(s) entering the building will be granted permission to remove any property or belonging that they own, again at their own risk. With the signing of this form the tenant is accepting all liability if anything happens to them while inside the premise listed above. The landlord will not and cannot be held responsible or liable for any damages or claims from the tenant while moving out of the property.

With the signatures listed below, both the landlord and tenant(s) are in agreement that the Tenant(s) is entering the building at their own risk and have fully read and agreed to this condition. The Landlord also acknowledges that they are allowing the tenant(s) in the property to remove their personal property or belongings.
